NOTE: Financial need will be considered in assessing applications.
The Municipality of North Cowichan Tom Walker Forest Legacy Scholarship and Bursaries will be awarded to a secondary school graduate who is a resident of North Cowichan. The applicant must be enrolled in a first-year program with a post-secondary institution such as a technical school, College or University. Preference will be given to students who are enrolled in science related studies such as forestry, environmental, fisheries, hydrology, geotechnical, climate change, global warming etc. In the absence of an applicant pursuing a science related field, the scholarship and bursaries will be awarded based on a scoring system that evaluates the applicant's submission as per the requirements outlined above.

The Municipality will award the scholarship and two bursaries directly to the winners upon proof of enrollment to a post-secondary institution along with copy of receipt(s) for tuitions paid.
