Dear staff and students

As we enter the last week of school our expectation is that students continue to show the excellent responsibility and respectfulness we have seen all year. Keep your focus students: and teachers, have students remain in classes and work areas until the bell sounds. We do have many assessments and other activities. The last class is in session until the 3:15 bell.

W block.

Students need to hand in their lock with the attached combination this week to Advisors. Final collection of all locks is Friday during W block, (2nd block to replace Q)
