

Welcome to CAMPUS!

PLEASE SHARE WITH ALL EDUCATORS within your organization.

Welcome to CAMPUS, the National Film Board of Canada's education streaming service. CAMPUS is the premiere destination for educators who are seeking 100% Canadian film & media content, that supports learning across all curricula.

Through CAMPUS your students can access thousands of films, media resources and playlists by visiting NFB.ca from any computer or device using a school IP.

Educators have more access to additional tools and resources that are unique to CAMPUS, including:

- Access to more than 5000 film and Interactive media productions
- Exclusive access to more than 1500 films and new releases
- Thematic Playlists curated by Canadian educators
- A chaptering tool to create short clips from any NFB production
- The ability to create and share playlists
- Hundreds of Teacher Guides for popular titles (K-12)
- Ability to search the NFB catalogue by school subject
- Education Synopsis' that contextualize select films for the classroom
- Google classroom integration
- MARC records to support libraries
- 100% Canadian content, available in English and French

Educators at your institution will need to activate their individual account to have access these features AND to access CAMPUS from home. No account is required to stream films at school. You can activate your account using this token link:
