Wulhxus (March) -The time when the frogs start to sing.

‘lyusstuhw tun’a skweyul (Enjoy Today)

The Season of Spring!

The days of spring are close by, and this month brings the beautiful songs of frogs! In Cowichan, the wuxus (frog) represents rebirth, new beginnings and the signs of the earth waking up.

Assessments lists have been posted on the student information board. Please check for your name.

Congrats to the SR robotics Tournament winners. Three teams from Frances Kelsey competed in the Regional Skills Canada tournament for Secondary Robotics. All of the teams played well and fought hard for their final standing. The teams persevered through robots breaking down and needing quick fixes between matches.

New Debate Club is at our school! It's a great opportunity to be part of a team, explore new perspectives, and tackle important topics. All students of all skill levels are welcome to join. Come to room 221 on Thursdays. Teacher sponsor: Liam Edey.

SPORTS:

South Cowichan Youth Softball runs from April 11-June 21st. Age groups 2019-2007. One weeknight practice and a weekend game. $75 before March 31st. Please contact the CVRD at kprc@cvrld.bc.ca
